

the University of Victoria presents

new media

CONFERENCE 2001

IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE NEW MEDIA INNOVATION CENTRE

FEB 11-13

Third Annual New Media Conference & Career Fair

UNIVERSITY CENTRE, UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA • VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA

Martin Segger, Conference Chair

CONTENT, CONNECTIVITY AND CONVERGENCE

- Showcasing emerging technologies and applications for the design and production of New Media
- New Media 2001 will offer two days of presentations, discussions, and exhibits focusing on the emerging role of New Media in teaching and research, particularly as it relates to the relationship between advanced educational institutions and the information technology industry.
- Some of the keynote speakers will be: Walter Stewart, Director of Global Marketing, SGI, Murray Goldberg, Founder and President, WebCT Canada and Bill Buxton, Chief Scientist, Alias Wavefront

FREE

High-Tech Career Fair for Post-Secondary Students

Tuesday, February 13, 10 am - 3 pm, Student Union Building

Limited number of subsidized student registrations available to full-time post-secondary students enrolled in BC institutions
For information and to register online: www.maltwood.uvic.ca/nmc/2001/

Conference Partners:

New Media Innovation Centre (NewMIC)
University of Victoria, Div. of External Relations
Maltwood Art Museum and Gallery, UVic
Student Employment Centre, UVic
Royal Roads University, Victoria
Camosun College, Victoria
Vancouver Island Advanced Technology Centre (VIATeC)
New Media BC
SGI
Alias | Wavefront
Macromedia
Victoria Times Colonist
REALM Magazine
Western Economic Diversification
Maritime Forces Pacific NAVY
Industry Training & Apprenticeship Commission, BC

New Media Innovation Centre
www.newmic.com

